In good faith, wouldn't it be an obligation of an attorney to assist a "fee waivers" client to file for ALL filings, or is it objectionable conduct to select which filings to assist with?

Just asking, i have no experience dealing with damages.

Attached, but unfiled as I am unsure how to properly file this attachment, as a formality. To top it off, my dad STILL insists that i find work, so thank you for months of harassment, yelling, and constant scrutiny as exhibited by your servants.

This guy has convinced himself that I have been building a bed for 6 months... Take that camera down, immediately.

Dear Mr. Dincer:

As you know, we are the attorneys for Sullivan Properties, L.P, ("Landlord") your Landlord at the Premises. Over this past weekend in particular, you have contacted and harassed Landlord's employees, management and owners. Please be advised that under no circumstances should you contact my client or anyone associated with the Landlord directly. If you have a maintenance request or issue with the building, you may contact me via e-mail only. I will only respond to proper requests; any other communications will not be responded to.

By the terms of your own documents, including your numerous court filings, you have filed fallacious claims and/or reports with the Better Business Bureau, the Federal Trade Commission, State Farm Realty Insurance LLC, as well as others. On behalf of the Landlord, we hereby demand you cease and desist from any and all contact and interference with any business affiliates of the Landlord, including, but not limited to, State Farm Realty Insurance LLC, and cease and desist from the dissemination of false information regarding the Landlord. Your conduct, including your slanderous and libelous communications are defamatory, and give rise to various legally cognizable claims, including, but not limited to, tortious interference with contract. Landlord will pursue any and all of its legal remedies against you should you persist in such conduct.

Finally, if you feel that you simply cannot live in the Premises, the Landlord offers to release you from the balance of the term of the Lease without penalty. However, if you choose to remain as a resident in the Premises, then Landlord expects you to abide by the terms of your lease, and treat the building, as well as its employees and residents, with the same level of respect with which you expect to be treated. Please know that the Landlord will assert its rights under the Lease and at law if there are any further incidents.

Miss Laskowitz,

I informed your client of this material information and want no involvement with your personal affairs and dealings with Plaintiffs, and more specifically in their claims as attested to and as referenced in the attachments.

You can accept this as a courtesy and treat this as “time is of the essence”; I don’t want to enjoin myself in any fraudulent behavior or placed in false-light, aiding or abetting, or enjoined in these business dealings which you are privy to.

Have a good evening.

BD.
